you care about

Whatever your contribution might be - annual subscription, a donation, or in active volunteer time, your support will be most welcome and greatly appreciated.

The Friends Volunteers

The Friends volunteers have a significant role at the Villa. As the Museum and family visitor centre becomes more popular, we give our time and skills in an increasing number of areas. In some cases training is required, which we provide.

From an active volunteer's point of view, the Villa is a very pleasant place for Members to spend an hour or two doing something that is of real interest and which is well received and highly valued. Our work covers:

- fund raising events and activities
- museum guides and stewards
- a specialist team of education guides
- maintenance of the Roman Garden
- Winter Lectures, given by visiting speakers
- the handling display of artefacts is taken out into the community to fêtes, fairs and residential care homes.
- we help with other family activities and with the Villa's education programme throughout the year.
- Less noticeable, but absolutely vital, is our own behind-the-scenes administration. We welcome organising ability, admin and IT skills. Some meetings are necessary but most of the work can be done from home.

None of us has unlimited time, so we tailor our volunteer duties to times that suit, and yet still allow us to provide a high standard of support when and where it is needed.
